Support of the study of students in Bachelor's, follow-up Master's and Doctoral study at UCT Prague affected by the armed conflict in the territory of Ukraine in 2026

The University of Chemistry and Technology, Prague (hereinafter referred to as 'UCT Prague') issues this Decree regulating the principles and procedures of providing scholarships to students affected by the armed conflict in Ukraine (hereinafter referred to as the 'Decree').

The purpose of this Decree is to ensure transparent support through scholarships to students with Ukrainian citizenship who study at UCT Prague and who cannot continue in their studies at Ukrainian universities due to the military conflict or who, for the same reason, have found themselves in a difficult social or study situation in the course of their studies at a public higher education institution in the Czech Republic. With this measure, UCT Prague aims to maintain the continuity of the study, mitigate adverse impacts of extraordinary circumstances and support integration of the affected students into the academic environment. The support is provided in accordance with the rules announced by the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports (MEYS) and is funded from the non-investment resources of the Educational Policy Fund.

Article 1 Conditions for granting the scholarship

- (1) In accordance with the wording of Section 91, Para 2, letter e) of the Higher Education Act, as amended, and Art. 6, Para 1, letter e) of the Scholarship Rules of UCT Prague, students may be granted a special purpose scholarship provided that the following conditions are met:
 - a) the student submits a properly and fully completed application according to the instructions of the relevant Dean's Office of a UCT Prague faculty or UCT Prague university institute no later than 18 October 2026,
 - b) the student is a citizen – a national of the state of Ukraine,
 - c) on the date of submission of the application, the student is enrolled in Bachelor's, follow-

- up Master's or Doctoral study at UCT Prague within the standard period of study,
- d) in the application, the student declares that due to the armed conflict in the territory of Ukraine they have found themselves in a difficult social or study situation affecting the course of their studies or their stay in the Czech Republic,
 - e) on the date of submission of the application
 - i. no ex-officio proceedings concerning termination of the student's studies have been initiated,
 - ii. no disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against the student,
 - iii. no ex-officio proceedings concerning interruption of the student's studies have been initiated,
 - iv. the student has not submitted their own application for interruption of studies on which no final decision has yet been made,
 - f) on the date of issuance of the decision on granting the scholarship, the student's studies have not been interrupted or terminated.
- (2) Each student may submit only one application for a scholarship under this Decree, irrespective of the number of study programmes studied concurrently. A scholarship under this Decree may be granted to one student only once.
- (3) The decision on granting the scholarship is made by the rector or a person authorised by them.

Article 2

Amount and conditions of payment of the scholarship

- (1) From the MEYS contribution within the framework of the Educational Policy Fund to support the study of Ukrainian students, a total amount of CZK 1,926,480 has been allocated for scholarships for the calendar year 2026. The support of the study of Ukrainian students at UCT Prague is aimed at students who, due to the military conflict, cannot study at Ukrainian universities or who, for the same reason, have found themselves in a difficult situation in the course of their existing studies at a public higher education institution in the Czech Republic.
- (2) The total amount specified in paragraph 1 will be divided equally among students who meet the conditions for granting the scholarship under Article 1 of this Decree. The amount of the scholarship per student will be rounded down to whole Czech crowns.
- (3) The scholarship will be paid on the nearest payday in one lump sum after the decision on granting the scholarship has become final, but no later than 31 December 2026, from the resources of the MEYS contribution within the framework of the Educational Policy Fund, indicator F, allocated by decision No. 264154, ref. no. 14275/2026-1.
- (4) The scholarship will be paid to the student's bank account specified by the student in the Study Information System (SIS), held with a bank with its registered office in the Czech Republic.

Article 3

Final provisions

- (1) This Decree is valid from the date of its signature and effective from the date of its announcement.
